Description

Glazed stoneware dish signed Marjatta Taburet, HB Henriot Quimper Late 19th century - circa 1890-1900 Dimensions: 25 × 25 cm Charming glazed stoneware dish by HB Henriot Quimper, signed by Marjatta Taburet, circa 1890-1900. Its square shape with rounded corners (25 cm × 25 cm) highlights a luminous design: two stylized birds, surrounded by large blue flowers on a warm yellow background. The overall effect is harmonious and vibrant, with colors that have remained very fresh. The reverse side bears the artist's handwritten label, confirming that this is an authentic and well-preserved piece. The stoneware features a beautiful, subtle natural crackle glaze that adds to its charm and evokes its era. The piece is in perfect condition, with no cracks, chips, or restoration; a very fine example
