Description

Pair of oil-on-wood paintings
Portraits of bulls
Spanish School, late 19th century
Dimensions with frame: 24x35 cm
A pair of oil paintings on wood depicting two bulls in profile within a landscape. The animals are rendered with understated elegance and striking visual power, in a palette of greens and blacks characteristic of late 19th-century animal painting. The paintings, which form a pair, are signed in the lower right corner with a signature that is difficult to decipher. On the reverse are remnants of old handwritten labels in Spanish, a testament to their history that would be interesting to decipher. A beautiful decorative set evoking the world of bullfighting and the tradition of Spanish animal painting from the Belle Époque.
