

19th-century Pump-action Inkstand - Paris Porcelain, Bronze, And Blackened Wood

250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 22cm

Width : 12cm

Description

19th-century desk (Napoleon III / Restoration style), complete and very elegant. A truly charming and historic piece, ideal for decorating a classic office or adding authentic character to your home. Base: Blackened wood on four spindle legs, featuring a pen tray at the front for holding pen holders and a decorative rocaille bronze/brass appliqué on the front panel. Porcelain pieces: 1 Central inkwell with a pump, made of white porcelain accented with fine gold gilding, topped with a chiseled bronze stopper/mechanism. 2 Matching side cups/powder dishes in white porcelain with gilding, topped with bronze lids featuring a seed/pinecone-shaped handle. Pen holder: Rear chiseled bronze frame designed to hold several pen holders.

Dealer

Eleousa gallery

Antiquités

Mobile : 0749880239

4 place de la croix

Ouroux-sur-Saône 71370