Description

Tabernacle made of beech wood, molded, carved, and partially lacquered in blue, gold, and cream, with rich decorative elements on the front featuring leafy garlands, scrolls, and drapery topped by a Greek-style frieze; the door is semicircular with a chalice at its center. Louis XVI period, in its original condition--only the key has been remade in our workshops. Only a single wooden slat is missing from the bottom on one side. Entirely in its original condition, which is quite rare for this period. Photos and additional information available upon request.
