

Brown Glazed Stoneware Oil Jar With A Bacchus Design By Philippe Ménard--1987, Folk Art

380 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sandstone

Diameter : 33 cm

Height : 44 cm

Description

A large glazed stoneware oil jar; the lid is adorned with a depiction of Bacchus drinking from his barrel, with a dog, a cat, and a full basket at his feet; the two-handled vessel is richly decorated with vine tendrils and birds. Dimensions: height 44 cm - base diameter including handles 33 cm. Signed on the underside of the base "MP" with a bunch of grapes (for Philippe Ménard) and dated 1987. Philippe Ménard was born in 1950. Initially a student of architecture at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris, he turned to working with clay after an apprenticeship with Pissareff in the Beauvais region. In good overall condition. Two small chips are worth noting: one on the frieze of the lid at the back of the barrel, the other on the tail of a bird on the base. No shipping--pickup in Paris

Dealer

Galerie des Fontaines

Céramique, Verrerie, Peinture, Art populaire, Curiosités

Mobile : 06 45 99 87 24

rue des Fontaines du Temple

Paris 75003

only.