Description

A magnificent French mirror featuring a richly hand-carved oak frame with deep relief detailing of foliate and scroll motifs. The craftsmanship reveals the artistry of early 20th-century woodcarving, with each leaf and tendril meticulously sculpted to create a dynamic interplay of shadow and texture. The frame's warm patina and subtle irregularities testify to its age and authenticity, while the generous scale makes it a commanding focal point in any interior.

Perfect for decorators and collectors, this mirror complements Arts & Crafts, Art Nouveau, or rustic French interiors, adding architectural presence and timeless elegance.
