Description

An elegant French side table/plant stand from the late 19th century, a magnificent example of fine French cabinetmaking. Crafted from fine rosewood and bois de rose, it features an elegant veneer embellished with refined inlays of polychrome woods that form sinuous plant and floral motifs, executed with extraordinary artisanal precision. The structure, with its soft, flowing lines, is embellished with a rich trim of finely chiseled gilded bronze appliqués that frame the top, decorate the legs, and highlight every architectural element of the piece with great elegance. On the front, a delicate hand-painted porcelain plaque featuring a floral bouquet stands out, set within a precious gilded bronze frame--a detail that lends the piece even greater prestige and sophistication. The contoured top conceals a
