Description

Max Clarenbach (1880-1952) - Original Etching
"Winter in Wittlaer" - Hand-Signed - Düsseldorf
School of Painting

Offered is an original etching by the renowned German landscape painter Max Clarenbach (1880-1952), one of the leading representatives of the Düsseldorf School of Painting.

The composition depicts the characteristic Lower Rhine landscape around Wittlaer, with pollard willows, water reflections and a traditional farmhouse. These atmospheric winter scenes are among Clarenbach's most sought-after works and perfectly capture the poetic landscape tradition of the Lower Rhine.

The print is titled "Winter in Wittlaer" in pencil and signed "Professor Max Clarenbach" in pencil.
