Description

A significant white porcelain group depicting three grape-harvesting Cupids, signed by Aristide de Ranieri (1865-1954). This group is stamped by the Manufacture de Villenauxe, a former French ceramics, earthenware, and porcelain factory located in Villenauxe-la-Grande (Aube) and founded in 1856; which marked the region's golden age thanks to the local mining of high-quality white clay before closing its doors permanently in 1992. This group is in perfect condition, with no cracks or chips. It measures 52 cm in height, with a base 32 cm long and 21 cm wide. Shipping within France.
