PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Inkwell, Art Nouveau, Pewter, Maurice Maignan (1868-1946), Paris, Circa 1900.

580 EUR

Signature : Maurice Maignan (1868-1946)

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Metal

Width : 20

Height : 18

Depth : 16

Description

Richly decorated Art Nouveau inkwell.In the center of the pentagonal base is a recess designed to hold an ink bottle. Behind it is a depiction of a young woman with her arms outstretched, set against a background of blooming pansies. The figure, emerging from the climbing foliage, serves as the focal point of the piece.It comes with an original glass ink cartridge.Signature: M. Maignan; SIOT DECAUVILLE PARIS FONDEUR;Maurice Maignan (1868-1946)--a French sculptor working in the Art Nouveau style. He created both decorative busts and utilitarian objects. His intimate works are featured in numerous European museums, notably the Musée d'Orsay in Paris and the Villa Rátha György in Budapest.Paris, Art Nouveau, circa 1900.Metal alloy.Dimensions: 18 cm x 20 cm x

Dealer

Antiques Urbaniak
Arts et métiers des XVIIIe et XIXe siècles
Mobile : 0048 609 682 083

10 rue Wielka
Poznan 61774

16 cmCondition: good, with signs of wear.