Description

Large cut crystal vase -- Baccarat, Edith model, 20th century
A beautifully proportioned vase in clear, heavy crystal, signed Baccarat, from the Edith model, one of the house's great classics of the 20th century. The piece features deep, regular, and perfectly executed geometric cuts that capture the light through its facets and give the vase a highly sculptural presence. The body, defined by clean vertical panels, offers the play of transparency typical of Baccarat crystal: pure brilliance, precise reflections, and no dispersion. The vase bears a perfectly legible "Baccarat France" signature, a second engraving on the side at the bottom of the body, and the original Baccarat label, which is still present--a rarity for this model. This prestigious vase weighs approximately 5.8 kg, a testament to its thick
