150 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Length : 40

Width : 30

Description

An elegant, large oval dish made of "cul noir" earthenware, featuring a hand-painted design in shades of blue. The bowl is adorned with a delicate basket of flowers and stylized scrollwork, while the rim is accented with a geometric and floral frieze typical of regional productions. The reverse side is entirely covered with a brown-black glaze characteristic of this type of earthenware, which is highly sought after by collectors of French folk art. This striking dish will naturally find its place in a collection of antique earthenware or as wall decor, as it currently is. Dimensions: Length: 40 cm; Width: 30 cm. Condition: In very good condition. No cracks, no restoration, and no noticeable chipping. The glaze is well-preserved with a light patina from use consistent with its age.
