Description

With its fluidity, lightness, and effortless movement through space, this magnificent sculpture leaves plenty of room for the imagination and sensitivity...Crafted from travertine by artist Édouard Duthuillé from a single block of this stone--cut, hollowed out, and polished in an admirable manner--it offers an almost sensual spectacle from every angle...A true ode to movement and material, this unique piece by Édouard Duthuillé perfectly embodies the union of mineral precision and the sensuality of organic forms. Carved directly from a carefully selected block of travertine, the stone is transformed here: cut, hollowed out, and then polished with rare mastery, it seems to defy gravity as it floats in space.The fluidity of the curves and the subtle interplay between solid and
