

Mahogany Chilled Beverage Table, Canabas Model

2 500 EUR

Signature : Attr a CANABAS

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Mahogany

Length : 64 cm

Height : 82 cm

Depth : 44 cm

Description

Elegant refreshment table, CANABAS model, crafted from mottled mahogany and solid mahogany, resting on three tapered, slightly arched legs finished with bronze feet, 18th-century. The upper band features a particularly refined, undulating design, incorporating a circular compartment intended to hold a metal cooling bucket, which is still present. The main recessed white marble top is surrounded by a finely chiseled, openwork gilt-bronze railing, a motif repeated on the two lower kidney-shaped shelves. The piece as a whole displays exceptional cabinetmaking quality, featuring a speckled mahogany veneer with rich, iridescent grain--a hallmark of late 18th-century Parisian craftsmanship. The middle and lower shelves offer generous space for

Dealer

Galerie Leroy

Antiquaire Généraliste Mobiliers du XVIIIe , XIXe et Objets d'Art

Mobile : 06 46 43 45 93

Remiremont 88200

display or serving. Designed by CANABAS, We have not found a maker's mark... Jean-François Canabas (c. 1731-1797), a master cabinetmaker who received his certification in Paris in 1766, is renowned for the finesse of his neoclassical furniture produced for an aristocratic clientele during the reigns of Louis XVI and the Directory. In very fine condition, with a light patina of use consistent with its age. Original brass handles. Antique Carrara marble Inner bucket included. Parisian work from the late 18th century. Height: 82 CM Length: 64 CM Depth: 44 CM A rare and decorative piece, both functional and emblematic of the refined reception furniture of the French Neoclassical period.