

Empire-period Clock, "allegory Of Knowledge," 19th Century

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Clock symbolizing knowledge French work from the Empire period, circa 1800 Made of bronze gilded with mercury and polished with agate Rests on a sea-green marble base. The movement is housed in a case adorned with the spines of books in a library setting. On one side, a woman is leaning against it, reading; on the other, an armillary sphere. The base is supported by four spinning-top-shaped feet. In very good condition; the clock comes with its original pendulum and winding key. The clock is in working order and has just been serviced. Height: 35 cm; Width: 30 cm. Provenance: - Private French collection Taxes and customs duties are included in the shipping cost for international shipments

Dealer

Pecile's gallery

antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 0763592136

4 rue aux moines

Donville-les-Bains 50350