Description

This antique 18-karat gold brooch is a timeless masterpiece, elegantly blending influences from the late Victorian era and the Belle Époque, while fully embodying the refined aesthetic of Art Nouveau. Its sophisticated, intricately openwork design showcases exceptional craftsmanship, characteristic of creations from this golden age of jewelry. At the center of the composition, a small diamond sparkles discreetly, surrounded by a delicately crafted floral motif. The harmonious curves and botanical motifs intertwine to form perfect symmetry, evoking nature and grace--themes dear to the artists of the era. The lower section, adorned with a swinging element, adds a touch of movement and lightness to the overall design. This subtly crafted detail also features a small diamond, further enhancing the
