Description

A cuff bracelet...Made of solid silver plated with vermeil...Hallmarked with a boar's head...Equivalent to 800/1000...From a FRENCH jeweler...From the 1880s...A few imperfections...I had a central baroque pearl added...And perhaps a crystal--also known as a Rhine stone--was replaced...!The bracelet has several notches to fit different wrist sizes...And I think you can wear it without fastening it...!The bracelet is quite supple and "flexible" while still being rigid...!Weight... 36.5 grams
