Description

A superb chest of drawers made of solid ash, molded and carved with a barley motif. It features five drawers, the fronts of which are adorned with a finely inlaid design depicting a flower-filled rural landscape, enlivened by a butterfly. It rests on a saber-leg base, is adorned with two overhanging shelves, and features a concave top with cut corners. Original handles, knobs, and key, with organic lines in gilded bronze. A rare piece, combining the excellence of artistic cabinetmaking with the naturalistic sensibility characteristic of Emile Gallé. Beautifully finished with wax.
