Description

A 17th-century oil-on-canvas painting depicting the Madonna and Child, attributed to the Emilian School of Giovan Francesco Gessi. The Virgin is portrayed in a half-length portrait, gazing tenderly and wistfully at her Son, who is asleep on her lap. The work is distinguished by its strong chiaroscuro contrast and the softness of the skin tones. The composition conveys a profound serenity and domestic sacredness. The painting is set in an elegant and ornate gilded frame decorated with geometric motifs. Dimensions (canvas only): 115.5 x 96 cm
