Description

An elegant pair of cushions crafted from vintage fragments of embroidered Anatolian kilims. The geometric designs, finely executed in embroidery, feature an alternating pattern of diamonds, stylized rosettes, and traditional friezes in a luminous palette of turquoise blue, ecru, ochre, and coral. The back is made of high-quality upholstery fabric with a linen-like appearance and a tight weave, featuring a discreet zipper closure. Two unique decorative pieces, ideal for adding a touch of authenticity and refinement to both contemporary and classic interiors. Hand-woven wool on wool. I should note that in addition to the decorative and complementary nature of this pair, the set is fully functional. The fabric on the back is very soft and comfortable, as well as elegant. Early 20th
