

Edo-period Katana.

2 150 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Katana from the late Edo period Blade from the Bizen school, unsigned. Well-defined hamon and beautiful chu-kissaki geometry (medium) Gunome Ha temper line. Ha Agari Kuri Jiri tang with two mounting holes. Some chips along the edge and polishing marks. Long nagasa measuring 71.5 cm Black-lacquered iron fuchi with a polished brass kachira; the menuki depict a tiger and a phoenix. The lacing has likely been redone. Openwork iron tsuba, Naga Maru Gata style, measuring 72.5 mm by 68.7 mm; it resembles a radiant sun. Black-lacquered saya with inlays of small raised dots, the overall effect of which resembles a starry sky.

Dealer

Les Collectionneurs d'exception
Antiquités

Mobile : 0680846185

112 quai de Bezons

Argenteuil 95100