

Paris, Circa 1830--rare Pouf, A Commode Stool Made Of Elm, Mahogany, And Amaranth--charles X

970 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

On display in Paris. In-person pickup available in Paris and its suburbs. Shipping within France: EUR60. Contact me for shipping to Europe and the rest of the world. Toilet stool Elm burl, amaranth, and mahogany Dimensions: H. 45; W. 41; D. 41 (cm.) Paris, circa 1830 Rare commode stool, derived from a light-wood "indigenous" bedroom piece. Quadrangular in shape, resting on four small, molded square legs. Molded front panel with an elm back and contrasting trim. Smooth sides, rough-hewn back, with visible dovetail joints. Upholstered top, hinged. It reveals a lid into which a chamber pot could be placed. Condition report: home-use condition, varnish refreshed, Preme silk upholstery with signs of use.

Dealer

Galerie Vendémiaire

Néoclassicisme, provenances, objets d'art, décoration et curiosités

Mobile : +33 6 66 62 94 52

838 chemin de la Lauve

Saint-Raphaël 83700