

Around 1970. Blown-glass Candleholder

120 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 12 cm

Height : 41 cm

Description

Here is a reinterpretation of the traditional candleholder, made in the 1960s and 1970s, crafted entirely of glass and consisting of a tall glass cylinder that encloses a baluster-shaped candleholder blown from the same material. The visual effect is poetic, yet it remains functional. Designed for a wide-diameter candle, it is in perfect original condition.
