Description

Magnificent Louis XVI-style chest of drawers in mahogany and burl wood, featuring three drawers in three rows on the front. The two lower drawers are stacked one above the other, without a crossbar, and decorated with a rectangular bronze frame featuring a heart-and-ray motif. The top drawer is entirely covered by a wide bronze frieze featuring interlaced motifs. The sides are adorned with a square frame featuring the same motif as the front and also topped by the same interlaced bronze frieze. The front posts feature tapered columns; our chest of drawers rests on four tapered, fluted spindle legs, banded at the top and finished with bronze feet; Bronze rings are used to open the drawers. Lock plates in the Louis XVI knot style. A beautiful piece of veined white Carrara marble tops this splendid piece of
