

King Louis-philippe's Beer Glass At The Château De Fontainebleau - 19th Century

850 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Description

Large crystal stemmed glass from Louis-Philippe's table service at the Château de Fontainebleau. Engraved with the royal cipher and the "F" for Fontainebleau. This rare beer glass, with a capacity of nearly 50 cl, was likely produced by the Baccarat factory and closely resembles the "Gondola" model. In very good condition. Height: 20 cm
