Description

A magnificent and rare painting by Nicolaes Piertersz Berghem, a painter from the Golden Age of Dutch painting who was also a draftsman and engraver. Born in 1620 in Haarlem and died in 1680 in Amsterdam. Artistic style: Baroque. Active during the 17th century. His works are featured at the Louvre Museum and the Musée des Beaux-Arts in Valenciennes. A student of Adrien Van De Velde. Son of the still-life painter Pieter Claesz. Here is a beautiful example of his immense talent, depicting a scene of shepherds and livestock. A painting of exceptional quality. In very good condition! Dimensions: 41x37 cm and 24x20 cm. Set in a beautiful gilded frame. A visually stunning painting.
