Description

An elegant oval snuffbox in 18-karat gold, made in France in the late 18th century, a refined example of French neoclassical goldsmithing. The lid is adorned with a central engraved panel depicting a classical architectural landscape, enclosed within a double braided frame. The base and sides feature a refined guilloché decoration with dotted and finely chiseled motifs, embellished with elegant cord-style borders that lend harmony and depth to the overall design. The interior is entirely lined with polished gold, a testament to the high quality of craftsmanship and the mastery of late 18th-century French workshops. The perfectly integrated hinge and the snap closure--which remains precise and fully functional--highlight the object's exceptional construction. Weighing 73 grams and measuring
