Description

18K gold pocket watch with hour and quarter-hour repeater and chronograph function, manufactured by "E. Mathey Tissot, Ponts de Martel." Dated around 1900. Mathey-Tissot is a historic Swiss watch brand founded in 1886 by Edmond Mathey-Tissot in Ponts-de-Martel. The brand has a glorious history, initially specializing in complicated pocket watches with repeater and chronograph functions. During World War I and World War II, it supplied precision chronographs to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and the British Army. In the 1950s and 1960s, Mathey-Tissot was among the companies that produced the famous Type 20 chronograph for the French Air Force. Stamped 18K yellow gold savonette case with a guilloché pattern; case back engraved with "Repetition à quarts E. Mathey
