Description

Pair of three-armed candelabra in gilded and patinated bronze with caryatid decoration, First Empire period (1804-1815), 19th century. Decorated with carved caryatids in bronze with a brown patina, depicted as winged female figures standing in antique drapery, holding aloft a three-armed candelabra in the shape of volutes, in gilded bronze covered with finely chiseled scales and topped with saucers adorned with beaded friezes featuring guilloché-engraved grooves. The base, crafted in gilded bronze, consists of a polished square plinth on which rests a cylindrical, guilloché-engraved pedestal covered with leaf motifs arranged in scales and topped by a polished globe. France. First Empire period. In good condition. Beautiful matte, burnished gilding. Dimensions: Height: 51.8
