Description

An elegant pair of nightstands made of solid fruitwood, French craftsmanship from the mid-20th century, circa 1950-1960. Each piece opens with a front drawer, featuring its original knob, and rests on four tapered, slightly curved legs, joined by a crossbar that provides additional storage space. The tops are framed by a discreet molding, a detail that is as aesthetic as it is practical. The fruitwood features a beautiful golden hue and a warm patina that highlights its natural grain. The set captivates with its clean lines, timeless elegance, and fine craftsmanship. This pair of nightstands will naturally find its place in a bedroom, but can also be used as side tables on either side of a sofa or in an entryway. Period: mid-20th century (circa 1950-1960). Origin: French
