Diameter : 12

Height : 13,5

Description

Ice bucket in silver-plated metal with a perfectly polished cylindrical body, offering a mirror-like surface of great purity.

The piece is adorned with an applied metal belt featuring a raised decorative buckle, a distinctive element that lends the whole an unmistakably "couture" allure.

This dialogue between geometric rigor and ornamental detail clearly recalls the aesthetic language of French design from the 1960s-1970s, and in particular that of Maria Pergay, who designed an ice bucket practically identical to this one. Italian work, LIMAR - Italy, 1970s.

High-quality industrial production, reflecting the influence of French design on Italian manufacturers of the period. Condition: good overall condition; bright surface, light traces of
