Description

Orpheus and Eurydice, 19th century Painting by John William Waterhouse (1849-1917) A major 19th-century English Pre-Raphaelite painting depicting Orpheus and Eurydice, oil on canvas. This large-scale work, dating from the late 1890s, depicts the tragic lovers of Greek mythology--a recurring theme among the Pre-Raphaelites--with its themes of love and tragedy. A surface cleaning, the cost of which can be estimated prior to shipment, would be beneficial. Presented in an antique gilded frame decorated with foliage and berries. Dimensions: 112 x 89 cm
