Description

An elegant Louis XVI-style chest of drawers, made in the 20th century, featuring remarkable marquetry work in precious woods. It opens with two drawers at the front and rests on tapered legs topped with bronze feet. The front is adorned with rich decoration consisting of a Greek frieze, a central medallion with a profile set within a ribbon frame, and finely chiseled bronze elements. The piece is topped with an original gray marble top, adding both elegance and functionality. This chest of drawers captivates with the quality of its veneer, the harmony of its proportions, and its decorative refinement. It will naturally fit into both a classic interior and a contemporary setting, where it will add a timeless touch. Period: 20th century Style: Louis XV Materials: Precious wood marquetry, bronze
