Description

A set of four large leaded-glass panels, preserved in their original oak frames. Each panel features a geometric design punctuated by cabochons of red, blue, and amber-colored glass. The central section is adorned with a figurative medallion made of painted glass depicting a lansquenet (a historical German mercenary soldier from the 15th century) rendered in grisaille on a pale green background, on which mottos in Old High German are inscribed in Gothic script. In good overall condition. Dimensions of each panel: 47.5/188 cm
