Description

Torch-shaped lamp, made of gilded bronze, richly and finely chased with garlands of roses, asparagus, scrolls, and stylized foliage. Original gilding (in some photos, there are slight variations in color. This is due to the camera angle and the lighting). Louis XV style. Date: Late 19th century. New lampshade custom-made by me. This is actually one of a pair of candlesticks that can be sold together in another listing. (They have different lampshades to distinguish them, but the green lampshades from the pair are also available with the candlesticks sold separately.)
