Description

Italian painter (18th century) - Interior of a wine cellar during the grape harvest. 39 x 57 cm (unframed), 50 x 72 cm (framed). Oil on canvas, in a carved and gilded wooden frame. The painting depicts the interior of a barrel-vaulted wine cellar, brought to life by three figures of workers engaged in the grape harvest: in the foreground, a young man in a white shirt holds a copper tub and, together with a second worker, supports a wooden pole with his shoulder; in the background, a third figure is busy near the large barrels. Copper vessels and a white ceramic jug are arranged on the surface of a small table on the left. The scene, rendered in a brown and earthy color palette, demonstrates a fair understanding of the lighting techniques found in Northern and Flemish genre painting, filtered through the
