Description

Ostrich and Ostrich Egg Centerpiece - Silver-plated metal, late 19th - early 20th century.
Elegant and unique, this charming decorative centerpiece captivates with its exotic inspiration and exquisite craftsmanship. Made of silver-plated metal, it features a real ostrich egg, delicately supported by an elegant stem adorned with finely chiseled palm leaves. At the center of the composition, a stylized ostrich adds a charming naturalistic touch, evoking a taste for decorative arts inspired by travel and faraway lands. The richly molded and finely worked base underscores the quality of this lamp's construction, whose lines combine elegance and originality. A true object of curiosity, it fits equally well in a classic interior, an eclectic decor, or a cabinet of curiosities. It is in very good condition. We should simply note the absence of the small threaded cap at the top of the egg, which is used to hold it in place. This discreet and easily made piece does not detract from the overall presentation or charm. With its refined decoration, genuine ostrich egg, and elegant silver-plated metal mount, this object is a distinctive decorative piece, rare on the market. It could make a lamp full of personality that will appeal to lovers of antique decorative arts, curiosities, and refined objects. Envoyer des commentaires
