Description

An elegant bronze sculpture with a brown patina depicting two seagulls in flight soaring over a stylized wave, in a remarkable Art Deco style. The composition, full of movement and balance, rests on a black marble base, highlighting the sculpture's delicacy. Work signed by Charles Ruchot, a French sculptor renowned for his animal depictions imbued with dynamism and realism. A refined decorative piece, emblematic of French art from the 1930s, ideal for lovers of Art Deco and animal bronzes.
