Description

Refined silver-plated two-light candlesticks with frosted glass candle holders. The candlesticks feature a cylindrical stem, decorated with moldings and engraved decorations, and two intertwined arms, enhancing their refinement. Their uniqueness lies in their versatility; the central part is removable, converting the candlesticks from two to one light. They were likely used in gardens or terraces, but they can furnish any space with taste and refinement. English manufacture, Victorian period, circa second half of the 19th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 53 x 48 x 14cm
