Description

This prayer rug is a rarity. What makes it unique? It has no dyes--just soft colors derived from natural, undyed wool! Having seen hundreds of Baluchi prayer rugs--which tend to be rather traditional and, ultimately, quite ordinary--this one truly stands out from the crowd. In this composition, this sacred rug offers an unexpected dimension: nature and the fibers create harmony all on their own. It can be placed on the floor, of course, or used as a bedside rug, but it's also ideal for hanging on the wall given its picture-like format and directional design. The architectural form of the mihrab serves as the main decorative element. Traditionally woven and knotted using wool-on-wool technique. The quality of the wool is remarkable--it's very soft. The piece is perfectly balanced--you can't fake that. The piece dates
