Description

18th-century engraving--Saint Genevieve, patron saint of Paris--engraver: Jacques Balechou, after C. Vialtes. A beautiful, antique 18th-century chisel engraving depicting Saint Geneviève, patron saint of Paris, seated in a bergère chair with her prayer book, watched over by two angels; at her feet lies her flock. The plate was engraved by Jacques Balechou (1715-1764). The engraving also bears the inscription: "Saint Geneviève, Dedicated to the Patron Saint of Paris to the King," as well as the note: "Taken from the Gallery of Mr. Siffredy Mornas in Avignon." The spine features an old printed label from a Parisian print dealer. In good condition. Please feel free to contact us so you can make an informed purchase.
