Description

Tomaso Bugoni (Venice? - 1767)Portrait of a Young Girl with a HatPastel on paper, 40 x 32 cmThe work in question is a portrait of a young girl executed in pastel on paper by the Venetian artist Tomaso Bugoni, circa the second half of the 18th century. The young woman is depicted in a half-length portrait, with her head turned to one side and her gaze directed downward; a graceful smile plays on her lips. She is dressed in the fashion of the time, wearing a yellow-toned dress contrasted by blue trim, which ends with a bow on both shoulders. Flowers on her chest complete the dress's decoration. The artist pays close attention to color combinations: in fact, the woman wears a hat that echoes the same shades as her dress. Her hair is also adorned with flowers of various colors, among which pink stands out,
