Description

A charming spherical vase made of Limoges porcelain. A very rare Art Nouveau-era "pâte sur pâte" piece. Against a mottled green background, a woman's face stands out in relief, crafted from unglazed bisque. She is surrounded by a naturalistic design of leaves and flowers. The bottom of the vase is signed "Limoges" and features initials to be discovered. Very good condition. Art Nouveau period, circa 1900. Fixed price, non-negotiable. Shipping: 18 euros within France, 35 euros within the EU, and 150 euros to the rest of the world.
