

A Chinese Porcelain Bowl Decorated With A Bouquet Of Flowers, Based On A Design By C. Pronk. C

1 250 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 21,8

Description

Chinese porcelain cup with polychrome decoration in the center within a large medallion formed by a blue border accented with gold motifs, featuring a bouquet of flowers with a butterfly in the style of Maria Sibylla Merian's sketches; the wing adorned with scrollwork and foliage motifs attributed to Cornelius Pronk; on the reverse, near the rim, a red-iron border with a gold checkered pattern. Circa 1740-50, Qianlong period (1736-1795). Diameter: 21.8 cm. For a similar design, see Maria Antonia Pinto de Metos, The RA Collection of Chinese Ceramics: A Collector's Vision, Vol. II, no. 303, pp. 198-199.

Dealer

JM BEALU & FILS

Old ceramics

Tel : 01 45 48 46 53

3 rue du Bac

Paris 75007