

Julien Champagne, Known As d'Arnouville (1877-1932), Portrait Of A Breton Woman From The Island

600 EUR

Signature : Julien Champagne dit d'Arnouville (1877-1932)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Pastel

Width : 22

Height : 26

Description

Julien Champagne, known as d'Arnouville (1877-1932) Portrait of a Breton Woman from the Isle of Sein in Traditional Costume, 1905 Pastel on canvas 26 x 22 cm (stretcher) 41 x 36 cm (frame) Signed and dated on the left side: Julien d'Arnouville/ Isle of Sein/ 1905 Jean-Julien Champagne was a painter and draftsman who worked under the pseudonym Julien d'Arnouville. He is best known for illustrating Fulcanelli's works. Here he depicts a Breton woman from the island of Sein, dressed in the traditional costume of the women of Sein from the early 20th century, consisting of a black headdress and a black dress with a barely visible white lace underskirt.

Dealer

Bailliet Antiquités

Painting-Drawing-Frame

Tel : 06 18 78 28 60

Lyon 69000