Description

Sèvres porcelain vegetable dish, 19th century, decorated with fine gold fillets and an "S" monogram beneath a Count's crown, crossed by a double "A," part of a service intended for an aristocrat named A, Count of S. It bears the signature S64 for Sèvres 1864 and the Sèvres gold stamp. Its size makes it well-suited for use as a trinket dish on a console table in an entryway or as a fruit bowl. Excellent condition, gilding is very fresh, no damage. Diameter including handles: 27.2 cm. Diameter: 21 cm. Height: 6.5 cm. Note: We also sell a set of matching dinner plates from the same service.
