Description

Pair of Renaissance-style water pitchers with flattened bodies, decorated with carved motifs and an SL monogram engraved and gilded with fine gold. This is a variation of the famous Cluny set, here in its plain form, personalized for an aristocratic family. Late 19th century. A beautiful, luxury piece, reflecting the lifestyle of high society during the Belle Époque. Our carafes are in excellent condition: crystal-clear with no white deposits, no damage, and very beautiful gilding with no wear. Nearly 150 years old and still in like-new condition. Height: 17.8 cm
