Description

An elegant pair of antique carved stone statues, depicting two female figures with classical lines. Each statue embodies a musical scene: one plays the flute, while the other holds a tambourine, evoking an artistic and timeless atmosphere. Inspired by classical art, these sculptures feature delicate drapery, graceful poses, and refined detailing. The stone's natural patina, marked by the passage of time, lends them an authentic charm and a beautiful decorative presence. Resting on their original pedestals, these statues are ideal for enhancing a garden, patio, or entryway, adding a touch of elegance and character. In good overall condition with a natural patina and signs of age. Sold as a pair. Rare decorative pieces, perfect for lovers of classical art and antique garden ornaments.
