Description

This 1980s sideboard, crafted from stained Tanganyika Walnut veneer, features a functional design and the elegance typical of the period. The structure features hinged doors, some of which are glass, offering a perfect combination of visibility and discretion for stored items. The central open compartments add versatility, ideal for displaying books or decorative objects. The middle shelf and end columns are embellished with pink marble details, lending a touch of refinement and textural contrast. The cabinet is in good overall condition, maintaining its original functionality and aesthetics.

Product Condition: The item is in good condition, with minor signs of wear. We try to present the item's actual condition as accurately as possible with the photos. If any details are unclear from the photos,
