Description

Model '591' table lamps designed by Gino Sarfatti for Arteluce in the 1960s. An emblematic example of Italian design, these lamps feature a spherical chrome-plated steel structure that reflects its surroundings, creating a unique visual effect. The circular base provides stability, while the adjustable diffuser allows the direction of the light to be adjusted as needed. The Arteluce manufacturing mark is present, guaranteeing the authenticity and quality of an iconic piece of Italian modernism. Perfect for adding a touch of vintage design to any space. Two E14 bulbs. Product Condition: The lamp is in good condition, with minor signs of wear. We try to present the actual condition of the lamps as accurately as possible with the photos.
